BUELLTON - IN THE HEART OF THE SANTA YNEZ VALLEY

Central to the productive Santa Ynez Valley wine making area, Buellton is one of five small towns nestled in the fertile green countryside. Known as the "gateway to Santa Barbara County Wine Country," on Hwy 101, Buellton's wide range of activities include landmark equestrian facilities, wineries and vineyards. Trips to the historic California Mission Santa Ines, unique art galleries and championship golf courses are among the many ways to relax in Buellton. A wide variety of hotel accommodations, camping and RV sites are available.

A venue of Flags, the town's main street is rich in history - proudly displaying the American Flag for the length of the street. It was dedicated as a State Park in 1968.

Miles of lush countryside surround the area. Travelers can journey through acres of horse, cattle, ostrich, llama and Alpaca ranches.

Truly in the middle of many ideal destinations, Buellton also has ocean pier fishing as well as the Los Padres National Forest and Lake Cachuma. Home to the Firestone Walker Brewery, Pea Soup Anderson's and the Chumash Casino, Buellton has many fine choices for creative dining out and shopping. The Danish village of Solvang, located to the east, offers a unique selection of food, carriage rides and unlimited shopping.

The vineyards have made the Santa Ynez Valley a respected grape-growing region with over 60 award winning wineries and vineyards, making the valley a destination for superb wines and wine tasting. Nestled among the fertile green countryside of the Santa Ynez Valley, Buellton is a "must see" destination!
